

COLLABORATION, CONFLICT, AND CONTINUITY IN THE REFORMATION

ESSAYS IN HONOUR OF JAMES M. ESTES ON HIS EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

EDITED BY KONRAD EISENBICHLER

“The esteem in which Jim Estes’ scholarship is held is reflected in the simply stunning array of scholars assembled in this excellent volume. Their essays are uniformly first rate. This is a volume that not only honours Jim’s work, but coheres and educates.”

— David Whitford, Baylor University

“The quality of this collection is remarkable. The editor has called together a list of outstanding contributors from both sides of the Atlantic. The thematic parameters marvelously evoke a series of diverse, yet complementary articles that shed new light on the establishment of the Reformation, the dissolution of religious consensus, the frequent and – thanks to this volume – surprising degree of dialogue across confessional lines, and the shifting networks of people whose convictions, quirks and personalities changed the face of the Western Christian tradition.”

— Robert Bast, University of Tennessee

Featuring essays by Susan C. Karant-Nunn, Erika Rummel, James McConica, Heinz Sheible, Charles E. Fantazzi, Timothy J. Wengert, Valentina Sebastiani, Nicole Kuroopka, Hermann Ehmer, Raymond A. Mentzer, Silvana Seidel Menchi, Thomas Deutscher, Scott H. Hendrix, Andrew Colin Gow, Amy Nelson Burnett, Robert Kolb, Mark Crane, Paul F. Grendler, and Irene Dingel.
