

Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies
Victoria University in the University of Toronto

J. M. RICHARD CORBET RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIPS IN RENAISSANCE STUDIES

APPLICATION

These assistantships are intended to provide training and financial support to undergraduate students who have already demonstrated a commitment to Renaissance Studies. These awards are aimed at third year students; however, interested and exceptional second or fourth year students may be considered for the award.

The assistantships will be held at the Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies, Victoria University in the University of Toronto, where the student will be given the opportunity to be involved in Centre's academic community and projects. The Corbet Assistant will work at least one 4-hour shift at the CRRS per week, during which she or he will be responsible for basic library administration, assist library patrons, and participate in the organization of CRRS activities, particularly its events (such as workshops and conferences) and/or publications.

Please submit one copy of the completed form and your most recent transcript as a single PDF to Natalie Oeltjen, Assistant to the Director, at crrs@vicu.utoronto.ca. Official transcripts are not required; you can use a PDF from ROSI.

The application deadline for the Corbet Undergraduate Assistant is Monday 19 September 2016.

An interview will be required. Only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted. For further information, call 416-585-4484 or email crrs@vicu.utoronto.ca.
