

SPECIAL OFFER FROM THE CENTRE FOR REFORMATION AND RENAISSANCE STUDIES ON ITS “ESSAYS AND STUDIES” SERIES

Dear Acquisitions Librarian,

In consulting your web-based catalogue, I noticed that your library holds a number of volumes from the “Essays and Studies” series that I edit for the Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies at the University of Toronto, but not the complete run. I write to suggest that it would be very useful for your students and faculty working on European history, culture, and civilization in the late Middle Ages, Renaissance, and Early Modern Period (1300–1700) to have at their disposal the complete set of volumes.

To help your library acquire the missing volumes at a reasonable price and to ensure there be no future lacunae in the series, I propose the following: If your library sets up a standing order for future volumes (vol. 37 forward), we will apply a 50% discount (approx.) off the regular price of past volumes your library does not currently own. If it does not wish to set up a standing order, we would still wish to offer you the missing volumes at a discount, but this time of approximately 30%. We normally publish three to four volumes a year and the price for a single volume ranges from $25–$40 (depending on the size of the volume). Thus neither the cover price of our future volumes nor the financial commitment you would be making in setting up a standing order is excessive.

The volumes in the series have received very favourable reviews in major North-American journals in our discipline—Renaissance Quarterly and Sixteenth Century Journal in particular—but also in some of the most important European journals such as Bibliothèque d’Humanisme et Renaissance, to mention just one. The roster of scholars who have authored or edited volumes in the series, or whose articles appear in these volumes, include many of the leading lights in Renaissance and Early Modern Studies from Canada, the USA, Europe, and Australia. On the back of this page you will find a list of the 36 titles currently in the series, and you will note the variety of subjects, but also the firm Renaissance focus of the series. You can obtain more information on the series and on its individual titles by checking our web site, www.crrs.ca and following the “Publications” link.

For your convenience, you can use this form to set up the standing order and to order missing volumes. If you should have any questions, do contact me at the email indicated below.

Cordially,

Prof. Konrad Eisenbichler
