

The Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies Presents
A Celebration of Early Modern Studies
Thursday 5 December 2019 in Alumni Hall, Victoria College

Coffee & Pastries (9am)

Opening remarks (9:30am-9:40am)

Session I (9:40 – 11:10am)

Isabelle Cochelin, “The History of Servants and Service, 1000-1700”

Noa Yaari, “Welcome to Multiform Grammar: Welcome to the CRRS Library!”

Jean-Olivier Richard, “Thales Redivivus: Was There a Neo-Thaletan Tradition”

Mary Nyquist, “East is East and West is West?”

Coffee Break (11:10-11:30)

Session II (11:30-1pm)

Matt Kavalier, “Realism and the Demise of the Gothic”

Leslie Korrick, “Federico Zuccaro's Genealogy of the Arts: Some Politics”

Rachel Stapleton, “Epistolary Personas in Early Modern Women's Letters”

Jeremy Lopez, “Does Emilia Love Desdemona?”

Lunch (1-1:45pm)

Session III (1:45-3:15)

Elizabeth Cohen, “A Seventeenth-Century #MeToo? Art and History”

Katherine Williams, “Performing Disability in Early Modern English Drama”

Elizabeth Rice Mattison, “Sculpting Stories in the Sixteenth Century”

Paul Stevens, “Sola Gratia: The Mystical Uses of History in Post-War Britain”

Coffee Break (3:15-3:35)

Session IV (3:35-5:05)

Giancarla Periti, “Moving Forward”

Deanne Williams, “Renaissance Girl Cultures”

Jordana Lobo-Pires, “Forensic Rhetoric and its Discontents”

Samantha Chang

Closing remarks (5:05 -5:10)

CRRS Holiday Reception to follow, 5:15 until 7pm